

Pipeline 05-29 (Amended) March 27, 2006

TO : Customs Brokers, Importers and Others Concerned

SUBJECT: Change in Policy Regarding Submission of Duty Reimbursement

Statements for Merchandise Subject to Anti-Dumping

This is to advise brokers, importers and other concerned members of the trade community of an important change in Customs and Border Protection (CBP) policy regarding submission of duty Reimbursement Statements for merchandise subject to anti-dumping duty (19CFR351.402(f)).

Effective October 1, 2005, CBP shall no longer request Reimbursement Statements, either upon receipt of the entry or upon receipt of final assessment instructions.

Please note that Reimbursement Statements are still required even though CBP will no longer request them.

If no Reimbursement Statement is on file or attached to the entry and the Department of Commerce's final assessment instructions so provide, CBP will double the applicable dumping duty by issuing a CBP Form 29 to advise the importer of record of the action taken.

If the Reimbursement Statement is not provided prior to the entry being posted to the Bulletin Notice of Liquidation, then any subsequent protest, for this issue, will be denied.

Importers are encouraged to provide blanket Reimbursement Statements. This will expedite processing of the entries. See the attached example of a blanket Reimbursement Statement. Copies of the blanket Reimbursement Statement are also available via the CBP website at www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/import/add_cvd/program_guidelines/.
